We are your flowers.

Your smile is the sunshine on which we thrive.

Your understanding is the tender care which helps us over the rough spots.

Your teaching is the watering without which we could not progress.

Your seriousness of purpose for life is the sky toward which we look.

To you, Miss Cross, we fondly dedicate

PRESIDENT WAIGHTS G. HENRY

Michael - We are forever indebted to you for the qualities of mind and spirit that you have brought to us, and we hope we haven't lost you - Best wishes always - W.S.H.

WRIGHTS G. HENRY, JR.
PRESIDENT

LaGrange College
LAGRANGE, GEORGIA

Seniors of 1954:

Of all possessions granted to us none is quite so precious as time. It is the essence of life. Every waking day, greeted by however glorious a sunrise, means one less of life for us upon this earth. It is also another opportunity for the fulfillment of our dreams.

The bright college years are now behind the members of the graduating class. They will color the rest of life and forever mark you as a LaGrange College graduate. Here you have learned the value of independent study, the joy of creative fellowship, and the enrichment of communion with God.

It is my prayer that the remainder of life may bring to you the rewards that are the just due of people of insight, industry, sociality, and spiritual enlightenment.

Sincerely yours,
Wrights G. Henry, Jr.

The many organizations on "the hill" enable each student to pursue his interests. Through stage productions, musical programs, and religious activities, the students have an opportunity to share with others the things that they have learned.

LENA PEARL KNIGHT

To all those who have been helpful in the publishing of the 1954 Quadrangle, the Quadrangle staff wishes to express its sincere appreciation. The staff wishes to express its thanks to Miss Kate Howard Cross, the able adviser; to "Fat" Johnson, the dependable annual photographer; to Mr. Johnny Long for his assistance; and to Dr. Waights Henry, who furnished encouragement and inspiration.

It is the wish of the staff that the 1954 Quadrangle will serve as an adequate diary to keep these years in the memory of the LaGrange College students.

Y . W . C . A .

The Young Women's Christian Association is a religious organization of which every woman student on the "Hill" is a member. We have a cabinet composed of twenty-one members of the student body and one faculty advisor.

Through the "Y", we try to enrich the spiritual lives of the students on the campus. Each night we have vespers after supper and meditations from 10:15 to 10:30 in the Little Chapel.

We have adopted a little French girl, Nellie, whom we support. Also we contribute yearly to the world University Service and CARE. Through these activities, every student is made aware of the great need in the world.

"We unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God."

The Student Government Association is the democratic symbol of student life on the campus and is based on powers and laws granted by the president and the faculty. The purpose of the Student Government Council is to make every student feel that he is a vital part of the student body and to stress the importance of the cooperation of each individual in all campus life.

The Junior-Freshman Wedding takes place in the fall following a freshman orientation program which is sponsored by the Student Government.

The Student Government seeks to be a friend to all the students in the truest sense of the word—to make honor, truth, cooperation, and service the ideals of future usefulness as well as pleasant college experiences.

Seated: Colvard, Clegg, Matthews, Sprayberry, Flood, Brady, Smith. Standing: Tanner, King, Fetner, Smith, Lucchesi, Barrett, Williams, Eidson, Pitts.

The dramatic season for the Curtain Raisers of 1954 opened in October with Smilin' Through. Mattie Perkerson played the haunting role of the murdered bride who comes back, Michael Brown the bereaved bridegroom, Sarah Ann Maxwell and Ted Caldwell the young lovers, and Sam Baker the old doctor.

In November Barter Theater presented the play, George and Margaret, in LaGrange. A reception was held in the college parlors, honoring the three LaGrange College members of the cast, Thomas McKeehan, Blanche McKinney, and Kenneth Brumbeloe. Dorothy Jackson, Mattie Perkerson, and Ted Caldwell were accepted for summer work at Barter.

In December Happiest Years was presented. Peggy Smith played the leading role.

In February Dorothy Jackson, Mary E. Moore, and Grady Gower, Jr., starred in Member of the Wedding, written by Carson McCullers from Columbus.

March 12 brought an evening of one-act plays presented by the younger members of the Curtain Raisers.

On April 9 Molnar's Liliom was presented. The title role was played by Ted Caldwell.

On May 6 Pygmalion was presented, starring Michael Brown and Mattie Perkerson.

The year ended with the senior play, The Willow and I, done in arena staging. The star was Sarah Ann Maxwell. Supporting her were Mattie Perkerson and Ted Caldwell.

The Scroll is the literary magazine of the college. Students submit short stories, essays, poems, and reviews, the best of which are chosen for publication.

At the end of the year several students, never more than four in number, are selected to be on the Scroll of Fame. Chosen for their outstanding contributions, these students are honored by having their pictures framed and hung in the English room.
